

November 26, 2010

Mr. A.M. Naik Wins CNBC's Asia Business Leader Award

Chairman & Managing
Director, Mr. A.M.

Naik's array of awards
TV March 2010, and

, CNBC Europe and CNBC US.

Business Leader Awards (ABLA) is recognition for leadership award in the Asian continent. It is given to those whose vision a reality for the company and profitability. Qualities including innovation, leadership skills and the leader's ability to formulate strategy are the key judging criteria.

Awards have distinguished and honoured individuals who have led and shaped the Asian economy. Recipients are those who play a pivotal role in today's global economy. The core values of a successful leader – innovation, leadership and foresight – values that are imperative to carving out powerful leadership in the global economy. Typically, winners of the Awards exemplify the qualities of leadership.

CNBC states that it pioneered the Asia Business Leaders Awards to salute