

December 4, 2009

Mr. A.M. Naik wins Qimpro Platinum Standard – National Statesman Award

L&T's Chairman & Managing Director, Mr. A.M. Naik has won the Qimpro Platinum Standard – National Statesman Award for Excellence in Business. The award is yet another acknowledgement by the corporate world of Mr. Naik's sharp business acumen, strong leadership and enduring vision.

Recognised as the country's premier quality citation, Qimpro Awards were instituted by the Qimpro Foundation to highlight quality achievements of extraordinary individuals in the areas of performance excellence, corporate governance and social responsibility.

Each year the awards attract entries from committed quality leaders in business, education and healthcare. An independent panel of 12 judges decides the winners for each of the three categories.

Mr. Naik will receive the award at a felicitation ceremony in early February 2010.

Past winners include such eminent personalities as Mr. Ratan Tata, Dr. E. Sreedharan, Mr. Narayana Murthy and Mr. Azim Premji.

