

initiatives. He was also appointed the Chairman of L&T's largest investment at Hyderabad Metro Rail as well as the Naval Shipbuilding facility of the group.

While accepting the role of CEO & MD, Mr. Subrahmanyam said: "It is an onerous responsibility to manage and grow such a huge and highly diversified engineering, project, manufacturing and services conglomerate. Further, stepping into the shoes of a visionary and industry doyen like Mr. Naik is not easy. However, I have been blessed that Mr. Naik has agreed to continue as a Non-Executive Chairman. This will bring continuity and stability into the organization during this transition period."

"God has been kind to me. I thank all the Board of Directors and well-wishers for reposing
