

L&T bags New Orders worth `4100 Cr in Buildings & Factories IC

Mumbai, June 22, 2011: Larsen & Toubro's (L&T) Buildings & Factories Independent Company – part of its Construction Division – has secured new orders worth `4100 crore during the first quarter of FY2012 for the construction of airport expansion, hospital, commercial, residential buildings including factories.

L&T has secured new orders aggregating to `1638 crore in the Commercial Buildings & Airports business from reputed customers which includes design & construction of airport terminal expansion, hospital and medical college and other commercial buildings.

It has also secured orders worth `2051 crore for the construction of residential towers from leading developers across major cities.

New orders worth `411 crore has been secured for the construction of factories from esteemed clients including additional orders in the ongoing contracts.

These orders further enhance the order book of the company which has already secured for major design & build contracts in Airports, IT Parks commercial and residential space.

Back ground:

L&T is a USD 11.7 billion technology, engineering, construction and manufacturing group, with global operations. It is one of the largest and most respected companies in India's private sector. A strong, customer-focussed approach and the constant quest for top-class quality have enabled L&T to